NEW HAVEN LEADS
Has More Miles of Track Electrified Than Any Other Road Now.

The New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad has more miles of its tracks electrified than any other railroad in this country. This is shown in figures recently compiled by the

Out of the 145.3 miles of track electrified in the United States, according to these figures, the New Haven has a total of 59.4 miles, or a trifle over 40 per cent. This figure includes the 20 miles of the Hoosac tunnel electrification on the Boston and Maine.

Here are the figures as given by the Electric Railway Journal:

New York, New Haven & Hartford 59.4
Pennsylvania 43.5
New York Central 37.1
Southern Pacific 36.0

FUNERAL

Mrs. Lowelyn Pratt.
From the home of Francis J. Leavens, 202 Broadway, the funeral of Sarah Putnam Gulliver Pratt, widow of Rev. Lowelyn Pratt, D. D., was held at 11 o'clock on Friday morning. Beautiful flowers betokened the sympathy of Rev. Edward J. Dwyer, Strong Worcester, conducted the simple but impressive service. O Mother Dear Jerusalem, and Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand were the hymns sung by a quartet comprising Miss Clara L. Worth, Mrs. Fred S. Young, George A. Turner and Charles D. Geer. The burial was in the family plot in Maplewood cemetery, where Rev. Mr.
Worcester read a committal service.
Henry Allen and Son were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

John W. Craft.
The funeral of John W. Craft was held Friday morning with services in St. Patrick's church. There were friends and relatives at the service and there were many beautiful floral tributes. Rev. John H. Broderick officiated.

The bearers were John P. Corcoran, John S. Hartie, Daniel J. Donovan and James Madoney. The body was sent to Danielson on the 3:10 train for burial in the family plot.

Mr. Craft was a nephew of Mrs. Andrew J. Wholey of Park street. He was 38 years of age and is survived by his parents and a brother. He had been in poor health for some time.

MAKING
YOUR DOLLAR
DO
DOUBLE DUTY

Our dollars come hard enough to most of us to make us interested in anything which will tend to give them greater purchasing power. And so our readers will appreciate our repetition of the same idea in these talks on advertising, when we call attention again to the daily possibilities for economy and saving offered by careful and intelligent buying of the year-in, year-out things that all of us must buy.

Clothes, food, recreation—all are better bought, more intelligently bought, more economically bought by those who read the advertising with care and understanding.

In saying how much a dollar will buy, it makes all the difference in the world who spends the dollar.

Rotted into River While Intoxicated

Decomposed Body of Thomas Murphy, Plainfield Blacksmith, Formerly of Norwich Found by Boys in Quinebaug River Friday Afternoon—Went on Fishing Trip Last Saturday and Missing Since

Missing since last Saturday night, the decomposed body of Thomas Murphy, of Plainfield, formerly of this city, and a wheelwright, was found floating in the Quinebaug river Friday afternoon. The discovery, which made certain the fact that he had been anticipated as possible for Murphy was made by Alfred Semino, a Plainfield youngster, who had gone to fish with the idea of possibly finding the body. It had been caught in a bush near the shore under a high bank at a point in the river below Packville and about opposite the Waldo place. The spot is about half way between Canterbury and South Canterbury.

The find was made by young Semino and a companion, about 6:30 o'clock and word was later sent to Medical Examiner W. W. Adams of Moosup, who got down to the point at ten o'clock and proceeded with his investigation under the rather uncomfortable conditions. The body, which was badly decomposed, was found in a network in the water that was nearly trickled from the bushes in which it was caught and this was found no easy task. Then it had to be towed down the river with a rowboat, because of the high bank on the side where the corpses were found.

Positive identification could not be made Friday night, for it was a late hour when the body was recovered, and Murphy had not many acquaintances in Plainfield, for he had only been there two weeks. People at his boarding house said that it was he and two Norwich men who were in West Main street, this opinion.
Medical Examiner Adams will therefore continue his investigation today and make identification complete.

The events that led up to Murphy's drowning began with a fishing trip last Saturday, a Plainfield man maintains, going along as his companion. The men had a considerable quantity of liquor with them, at least two quarts it was said Friday night by acquaintances, and the probabilities are that the fishermen imbibed freely. They lay down in 40th street, near the river bank. When Howes awoke about midnight Saturday, his companion was gone. It looks as if he had rolled over their bank. At any rate he was fished out of the water Friday and there were no evidences of foul play.

Murphy was a man of about 35 or 40 years of age, said to be a native of Greenwich, L. I. He had no relatives, and it is not known where he had been, and his disposition has been that of a rover, though he had worked many years in this city. About two weeks ago he left the employ of Lawrence Healey of this city and went to work in the blacksmith shop of William Canfield in Jewett City, Ia.
It said to have been a member of the New London camp of Spanish War veterans.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED

OUT AT TWO THIS MORNING

Cigarette May Have Caused Blaze in Partitions at 20 North Thames Street.

The fire department was called out at two o'clock this morning for a fire at No. 20 North Thames street, in the house owned by Hertz Brothers and occupied on the ground floor by the bakery of Yerman and Meyer, and in the tenement above by Mr. Yerman, his wife and four children. Mr. Yerman was awakened shortly before two o'clock by a man who works for him and who was attracted by the sight of smoke issuing from the upper windows of the house. Mr. Yerman aroused his wife and children and then ran out to Chemical company No. 2 on West Main street. Policeman McAd-den at about the same time saw the smoke and went to box 14 at the corner of West Main and Thames streets.
The fire was quickly extinguished and the two chemical companies, the truck and the two steamers responded and two lines of chemical hose were laid and four water lines.
Chief Stanton found the fire burning hotly inside the partitions up a high up on the second floor. It had not started in the bake shop, as all the fire had been allowed to go down at underneath Friday, but the circumstances seemed to show that someone dropped a cigarette into an airspace between the Hertz house and its neighbor. This caught in some rubbish probably, burned through the sill and ran across the floor joists and into the partitions.

dropped a cigarette into an airspace between the Hertz house and its neighbor. This caught in some rubbish probably, burned through the sill and ran across the floor joists and into the partitions. The fire was quickly extinguished and the two chemical companies, the truck and the two steamers responded and two lines of chemical hose were laid and four water lines.
Chief Stanton found the fire burning hotly inside the partitions up a high up on the second floor. It had not
stances seemed to show that someone
